PERSONAL EXPLANATION

Mr. GALLAGHER. Mr. Speaker, I returned home to Green Bay, Wisconsin to attend to a family matter and avoid dangerous travel ahead of the powerful snow storm. Had I been present, I would have voted “nay” on rollcall No. 547, “yea” on rollcall No. 548, and “nay” on rollcall No. 549.

Mr. ROY. Mr. Speaker, reserving the right to object.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. BUTTERFIELD). The gentleman is recognized on his reservation.

Mr. ROY. Mr. Speaker, I would note that this $1.7 trillion legislation is moving off the floor without a physical quorum present. There were 218 votes cast by proxy on the rule and 226 votes cast by proxy on the final passage of the bill.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRIES

Mr. ROY. Mr. Speaker, parliamentary inquiries.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman will state his parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. ROY. Can the Speaker advise whether there is a physical quorum present as required under the Constitution and whether there is any recourse for any Member under our rules to challenge a ruling that there is a quorum?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair will just note that a quorum was, indeed, present.

Mr. ROY. Under what rule does the Speaker make the assertion that a quorum is present when there were 226 votes cast by proxy, i.e., not physically present in the Chamber?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to section 3(b) of H. Res. 965, the 116th Congress carried forward by section 3 of H. Res. 8, Members casting their vote or recording their presence by proxy are counted for the purpose of establishing a quorum under the rules of the House.

Mr. ROY. One last parliamentary inquiry. Does any Member of this body have recourse to ask the Speaker to count the Members physically present here in the body?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair would simply note again that under the rules of the House, a quorum was, indeed, present.

Mr. ROY. Mr. Speaker, withdrawn. No objection.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman withdraws his reservation. Without objection, the motion to reconsider is now laid on the table.

There was no objection.
